“Education is not filling a bucket but lighting a fire.”

- William Butler Yeats

Today’s teachers are over-worked and under-valued, over-dedicated and under-paid. They cope with crowded classrooms, increased expectations and decreased funds and are often blamed by parents and others for lack of high test scores and lack of motivation & discipline of the students to name just a few. Despite these challenges, teachers still continue to do their great work with students.

A teacher has to be a friend, surrogate parent, mentor, motivator, inspirator, classroom control expert, coach and disciplinarian, as well as a master of their subject matter. While all of this doesn't pay lots financially, the pay is very rewarding both emotionally and psychologically. The only problem is that teachers are usually so busy teaching that they forget to take the time to remember and savour their successes and acknowledge the difference they have made in the lives of so many.

With increasing challenges in the classroom and the teaching profession, teachers and administrators need a high feeling of self-worth. From physical health to career; from relationships to lifestyle— having good self-esteem is vital to success and fulfillment in every aspect of our lives.

Why teaching is the most important profession of all!

Thankfully an increased number of educators recognize the value of high self-esteem to the overall success of their own lives and that of their students.

Teachers Make the Difference!™ is an entertaining and powerful seminar that will help teachers focus on and rejoice in the best parts of the teaching profession and their own special contributions to it. The seminar also teaches the key skills to expand their own self-esteem, and realize their own potential.

EXTRAORDINARY TIMES CALL FOR EXTRAORDINARY TEACHERS®

During the Teachers Make the Difference!™ seminar we will make use of the Accelerated Learning technique. This is one of the most innovative techniques in teaching today. Accelerated Learning focuses on responsibility for learning where it belongs—on the learner.

We will explain why teachers often, without realising it, undermine their own self-worth and unknowingly destroy the self-esteem of those around them, including their students. In this session, you will learn how to boost your confidence by overcoming your own negative inner-critic and you will learn how to take responsibility for your outcomes and how to take charge of your life by breaking out of the cycle of blame-and-complain.

After attending Teachers Make the Difference!™ you will have a sense of newfound energy and dedication to your job. You will feel better about yourself and about what you do!

In addition, you will learn:

- To identify your own personality style and the personality style of your students
- The power of language, focus & state
- Emotional Intelligence at school
- How to create spellbinding lessons
- How to boost your confidence and raise your self-esteem
- New teaching tools and techniques so you can make an ever greater difference
- How to enhance your communication skills
- How to build outstanding relationships

We strongly believe, that one of the keys to a better future is to improve the way educators deliver their knowledge to future generations. This seminar is specifically designed for Primary, High School and University teachers that want to make a difference.
